ABDUL'S WAYS.

Turkey Will Probably Order a Cruiser at Philadelphia.

(Associated Press.)

Constantinople, Nov. 29.—The arrival of the United States battleship Kentucky at Smyrna has so shaken up the palace, that evidence is accumulating of a desire to hasten a settlement to the satisfaction of the United States, and issue an irade calling for the purchase of a cruiser at Philadelphia, the price for which to include the $90,000 Armenian indemnity.

This is regarded as a subterfuge designed for local consumption in order to save the face of the Porte. Nevertheless it is now believed that Turkey will find the money, and order a cruiser in the hope of propitiating the United States.

Despite the dispute the relations between the United States and the Porte continue cordial.

BURGHERS FIGHT AT CLOSE QUARTERS

There Have Been a Number of Engagements East of of Pretoria—Eight Hours Fighting at Wilgen River—Boers Lost Many Men.

(Associated Press.)

Pretoria, Nov. 29.—Colonels Hickman and Plummer have arrived here. During General French's operations at Klip Riversburg their columns captured three wagons loaded with provisions that were identified as being part of the supplies that were distributed by the British for the relief of the Boer inhabitants of Johannesburg.

The authorities, in recognition of the services of Lumsden's Horse, are paying passages to them on their return to India. This contingent, equipped themselves at their own expense, and paid their own passage from India to South Africa.

General Smith-Dorrien's column has returned to Belfast after a five days' march from Bulwer. They had only one casualty.

On the return journey the Canadians, while scouting, rode close to an ambush prepared by the Boers. Realizing their position they sprang from their horses, turned them loose and sent them galloping back to the column. They then sought cover on a slight ridge and poured a hot and accurate fire into the Boers, killing several of them. They held their position until the column of infantry arrived, and did not sustain a single casualty.

A force of Boers attacked Balmoral yesterday. Col. Backhouse, with four companies of the Buffs and one howitzer, defended the place. The Boer plan was to take four commandos and make a simultaneous attack on all sides. Fortunately for the British only three commandos arrived in time to take part in the attack. The howitzer did splendid work. The British lost six men killed and nine wounded. Thirty of the Boers were captured, but they were subsequently released.

The Boers lost heavily. They sent out two burial parties after the fighting. The British took a number of prisoners and brought in many wounded, several of whom subsequently died.

Simultaneously with this attack a commando of 600 Boers, with one gun, attacked Wilgen River, which was held by two companies of the Royal Buffs.
The fighting lasted for eight hours. Ultimately the Boers retired with considerable loss. The British loss was one wounded.

The garrison at Balmoral Spruit sent two guns to relieve the Fusiliers.
As the men retired a shell was placed among the Boers on a knoll, killing or wounding thirteen of them.

The commandos which made these attacks were under Gen. Viljoen, Trichard and Pretorius. The enemy fought at close quarters with utmost determination.

All the garrisons have been strongly reinforced. The places attacked are all within a short distance of each other on the railway to the east of Pretoria.
The railway has been torn up in several places, but is now being repaired.

Steyn Reported Wounded.
London, Nov. 29.—So far as is known here former President Steyn is not wounded, although reports to the contrary have been circulated.

Eluded the British.
Capetown, Nov. 29.—Gen. Knox, by a rapid march of 26 miles, succeeded in getting in front of Gen. Dewet, placing himself between the Boers and the Orange River. Dewet is now believed to be going westward to join Hertzog at Bismarck.

Colonel Plummer had a smart skirmish on Tuesday with part of General Dewet's command, which was conveying loot captured at Dewetsdorp. The Boers retreated, abandoning a portion of the loot and a large number of horses.
Former President Steyn and Gen. Dewet were in close proximity to the scene of the fighting, but they eluded the British.
Farmers Join Dewet.

London, Nov. 29.—In connection with the movements of Gen. Knox, reported in his dispatch from Capetown, Lord Roberts, in a message from Johannesburg, dated Wednesday, November 28th, says that Gen. Knox proceeded to Dewetdorp on November 26th. The Boers, he adds, had attacked the place on November 21st, and the town had surrendered on November 24th. Gen. Knox, at last accounts, was pursuing the Federal commando.

Lord Roberts also reports that various columns found the Boers holding strong positions in the vicinity of Hovelsmith, Philippolis, both in the Orange River Colony, and other widely separated points. The fighting, however, was of little importance.

The Boers were so tenacious that Colonel Plummer's men actually reached a position within thirty yards of them, where revolver shots were exchanged.
The Boers shelled the British with 15 pounders captured at Dewetsdorp.

Ex-President Steyn and Gen. Dewet, who were breakfasting at a farm near by, rode off to the westward, leaving the British front clear. The British casualties were one man killed and six wounded.

Several Boers, who had been wounded, were found by the British.

Steyn and Dewet have since been reported to have been camped to the westward, between Helvetia and the railroad, but the commando appears to have broken up into three bodies. District Commissioner Boyle, of Dewetdorp, remains in the custody of the burghers.

Many farmers in the district have joined Gen. Dewet.

Raiders on the Border.

Colesburg, Cape Colony, Nov. 29.—Boer raiders have reached the Orange river.
They have fired into the British camp on the Cape Colony side, at Sandrift, killing one man and wounding two men.

Canadians Reach London.

London, Nov. 29.—A detachment of 200 men belonging to the Royal Canadian Regiment, Col. Otter commanding, which have just reached England from South Africa by the Hawarden Castle, arrived in London to-day and proceeded to Kensington barracks.

Since their arrival at Southampton, where they were welcomed by Major-General Macgregor Stewart, the Canadians have been greeted everywhere with tumultuous applause. General Stewart made a brief speech to the Canadians, during which he said Englishmen justified at their bravery and deeds as well as much as they have just received the honors achieved by the home troops and their kinsmen from all the colonies brought together by the war.

Col. Otter expressed his thanks for the sympathy uttered, and the Canadians took the train for London.

The Canadians will proceed to Windsor to-morrow morning, and will there be received by the Queen.

The reception of the Canadians in London was most enthusiastic. Large crowds at the railway station cheered and cheered them, and the whole route from the station to the barracks was lined with similarly cordial throngs.

Flags, including many Canadian en-signs, were displayed everywhere.
The men marched in splendid order, and appeared to be in perfect condition.
While they were drawn up in the barracks square the Duke of Alameda, chairman of the reception committee, congratulated them on their achievements.

General Trotter followed in a similar train. He also read a letter from the Duke of Connaught, praising the work of the Canadians.

Entertained at Liverpool.

Liverpool, Nov. 29.—The Lord Mayor entertained another contingent of burghers bound Canadian troops today at the town hall. A dramatic feature of the entertainment was a speech made by Private Molloy, who had been returned slightly by a bullet, which had reversed both temples. Molloy, supported by a comrade on each side, related how he left his university to serve the Empire. He said he had no regret for so doing, as the "true brave should be ready to accept the consequences of fortune with fortitude."

The contingent consists of companies
A and I.

Returned of Household Cavalry.

London, Nov. 29.—The composite regiment of the Household Cavalry also returned on the Hawarden Castle. The troopers' arrival in London was marked by the scenes of enthusiasm which have so often been rehearsed in the last year. Great crowds awaited the cavalry men and the cheering was lusty and long throughout their march to their quarters. Paddington, where they detrained, was ablaze with color, as were the streets along the route. Several regimental bands added to the general gaiety and throngs sang "God Save the Queen" in chorus.

OPPOSITION TO A MINT.

It was not altogether unnatural to expect opposition from some of the banks to the establishment of a mint in Canada. Such institutions are essentially conservative, and it is not surprising that they should have doubts about the wisdom of interfering with and running the risk of throwing out of gear in any measure machinery which has run so smoothly in the past and under which they and the people of Canada have derived such undoubted benefits. The banks are doing well at the present time. They have the privilege of issuing notes of the denomination of $5 and upwards equal to the full amount of their paid-up capital, which practically amounts to the doubling of that capital. It is foreseen that the presence of gold in our currency might have the possible effect of displacing some of these notes from the currency of Canada. Perhaps that thought has something to do with the objections to a mint. It is also claimed that as we have never felt the necessity for a gold currency in the past there is no reason why we should not be able to get along without such a luxury in the future. It is true that international balances are invariably settled in gold, but Canada has as yet no international balances of any account, and there has never been any trouble in getting the where-withal to liquidate these. There is no doubt about these things either. But it is neither to benefit nor to injure the banks that it is proposed to establish a mint, although there is little doubt that they, in common with all other Canadian institutions, would be more benefited than they would be injured by the establishment of such an institution. Some of the Australian colonies have borne the burden of coining their own gold, and the advantages which they have derived from this must have been of some value to them as they would never have continued to turn sovereigns out. But the chief consideration with the Canadian government, we take it, will be that the West demands a mint, and if we must take note, despite the demurrers of certain Eastern institutions, we shall get it. We understand the conditions here better than our Eastern friends can possibly do, and in face of declarations that gold is of no more value in the shape of a coin than it is as a lump of shapeless metal, we know that because of certain conditions in Seattle which did not exist in British Columbia the gold of the Klondike was attracted there, and that it drew the passenger and the general trade with it. We want a remedy for such a state of affairs as that. It appears that there is only one way to overcome the competition of our enterprising neighbors, and it is pleasing to know that Mr. Fielding has not been at all moved by the opposition of the banks and other important bodies in the East. He has secured the permission of the Imperial government to the establishment of a mint designed to turn out British as well as Canadian coins, and we are not without hope that, with the assistance of Messrs. Riley and Drury, who are after all the real representatives of Victoria, we shall yet secure this valuable institution for this city, although the government will have to meet the serious opposition of Col. Prior and Mr. Earle in all their undertakings.

EQUALIZING ASSESSMENTS.

An agitation is at present being carried on in Ontario for a more equitable assessment system. In that province, as indeed in all other parts of the world, it seems to be impossible to impose a tax on personal property which will be absolutely fair in its application, and as for a tax on income, the fact appears to be that those who can best afford to pay escape entirely and those who can ill afford to do so have to "whack up" promptly. There has been a government commission sitting in Toronto for some time enquiring into this state of affairs, and all sorts and conditions of men have presented themselves before it and made their grievances known. If anything the grievances before this tribunal have made the confusion worse confounded. No two men appear to be of the same mind as to the remedy which should be applied. The small dealers are aggrieved because of the presence of the great departmental stores and the big institutions are not without complaints also. The railway companies and the tramway companies and the telegraph companies and the telephone companies and the gas companies think they have not been fairly treated in the past, while the representatives of the cities are clamoring about the injustice of the law which permits these institutions, and which are in their nature more or less monopolistic, to escape with the assessment of their valuable properties practically as "scrap iron"—that is, that the poles and the wires and the rails and the engines and the dynamos, and everything of value, shall be assessed as units, as if they were entirely independent of each other, instead of as a whole and because of the wealth they create when acting in unison in the services for which they were designed. The law as passed was never intended to be interpreted in the way it has been, but the vagaries which can be put upon a sentence in the English language which appears to be plain enough when approached from a certain direction are so extraordinary that it is impossible to tell what meaning may be twisted and extracted from the most innocent-looking statute before the lawyers and the courts have finished with it. The judges who are sitting on this Ontario Commission appeared to be in a quandary at last accounts. It is hinted that one of them has been converted by the proceedings to single tax views, or that he had secretly entertained such unorthodox ideas previously. Whatever the cause of his heresy, he has expressed the opinion that the only satisfactory solution of the perplexing problem with which the country is confronted will be found in the adoption of a system of assessment based on a tax on land values, on rental of premises and on income.

The active spirits in the fraternal and benevolent societies in Victoria have gone to a great deal of trouble in devising and formulating a scheme whereby the sick and the afflicted in their membership may have suitable hospital accommodation in time of need. So far there has been little evidence that those who should be chiefly interested in this laudable undertaking appreciate the disinterestedness of the gentlemen who have given up their time and their talents to make this movement a success. Able lecturers have been secured to discuss subjects of particular interest, and although there have been no fixed charges, it being left to every attendant to contribute as the spirit moved him or as the condition of his finances would permit, yet so far the audiences have been small as to raise serious doubts as to the advisability of continuing the lectures. It may be that the members of the societies have not thoroughly grasped the importance of the work which has been undertaken in their behalf. Perhaps there have been some misapprehensions which have now disappeared, and there may be a different tale to tell at a later date. We shall hope so, at all events, and look forward to the success of one of the most beneficent undertakings of the many which have been commenced, have been carried out and have accomplished great good in Victoria.

The British Columbia Minister of Mines is in Rossland ostensibly for the purpose of conferring with the miners of that district, but really to assist a gentleman by the name of McKaue to a seat in the House of Commons. He has adopted the same methods that he employed against Aulay Morrison in New Westminster, with a strong probability of meeting with about the same measure of success. Mr. McKaue affects to be a very candid, open, manly gentleman. Why does he not take the stump and meet his opponents fairly instead of resorting to the devices of a secret slanderer in working for his slaughterer's friends? If there is nothing to be ashamed of in the work he has in hand, why does he not do it in the open and before the face of all men?

put to many strange uses in the United States. A woman in Chicago claimed that she was annoyed by the attention of her husband, or her late husband, or perhaps it would be even more correct to say one of her late husbands, and straightway appealed to the courts to put an end to her tribulations by means of the convenient injunction. It was granted, and included in its prohibition the habit which this unfortunate "injunction" had fallen into of standing and gazing disconsolately for hours at the house the precincts of which he was forbidden under penalties to enter. It still remains for a debtor in Illinois to secure an injunction against the importunities of his creditors.

For almost as long a time as the present generation can remember the people of Toronto have been troubled about the quality of the wood from which the blocks for their pavements have been made. Why don't they send and get some sound wood from British Columbia?

One day they had a very high temperature in Chicago, with thunder and lightning, and on the next a blizzard was blowing, with the mercury below zero. The vicissitudes of the weather in British Columbia are mild compared with this.

Sir Charles Tupper says the Conservative party is united for victory in Yale-Cariboo and Burrard. McKaue and Gordon are going to sweep these great constituencies, using the same kind of a broom as the Baronet used in Cape Breton.

The Montreal Star has seen the error of its ways. It is supporting the Liberal government in Quebec.

Nice fellows, these Boers, and they are happy in their alliance with boodlers and assassins.

THOSE BOER GUNS.

Captured Cannon if Presented Will Be Given the Dominion.

His Worship the Mayor is in receipt of the following letter from Capt. Harry Graham, secretary to the Governor-General, in reference to the request of the Mayor for some Boer guns as trophies for the city from the House government. Capt. Graham says:

"I am directed by the Governor-General to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of the 13th inst., covering a letter addressed to the Secretary of State for the Colonies, containing a request that one of the guns captured in the recent South African war from the Boers might be transported to the city of Victoria to be used for the purpose of providing a suitable memorial to the volunteers from that place, which His Excellency has forwarded to Mr. Chamberlain."

"At the same time His Excellency desires me to inform you that though he quite sympathizes with the desire of the city of Victoria to obtain a memorial of the gallantry of its soldiers, he feels sure that should any trophy, such as guns, be presented by Her Majesty's government, such presentation would be to the Dominion of Canada, after which it would rest with the government of Canada to decide where the trophies could be most suitably placed."

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING.

(Special to the Times)
Vancouver, Nov. 29.—Geo. R. Maxwell made a very strong attack on Sir Herbert Tupper last night at the largest meeting ever held in the city hall. J. Coote was hoisted when he asked Mr. Maxwell if he held hydraulic leases in Atlin, and Mr. Maxwell's reply that he had absolutely no interest, directly or indirectly, in Atlin was received with cheers.

COURT OF ARBITRATION.

Attorney-General Griggs Selected as One of United States Representatives.

(Associated Press)
New York, Nov. 29.—President McKinley, says a Washington special to the Herald, has elected Attorney-General Griggs as one of the representatives of the United States in the international court of arbitration to be organized at the Hague.

At noon to-day the steamer Idzumi Maru, berthed at the outer wharf after a stormy voyage from the Orient, occupying sixteen days. She brought a small number of passengers, those in the saloon being Mr. and Mrs. Angiers, Mr. Morse, a merchant who has been making a business tour of Japan, and Harry Gosmer, a boy sailor, who had been on one of the Standard Oil company's ships. He took sick at Nansai, and is being sent home to Philadelphia, where his father, Rev. Charles Gosmer, has charge of the Seaman's Mission. Mr. Angier is the proprietor of the China News in London, Eng., and comes now from Japan, which country, as also China, he has been travelling through. The steamer brought also 25 Japanese passengers for this city. Her cargo for this port included 7,000 packages of miscellaneous freight. On her inward voyage the ship passed a large steamer bound to the westward in 150 E. and 49 N.

THEIR FIRST CONCERT.

The Arion Club Opened the Season Last Evening With Splendid Programme.

The Arion Club last evening gave their first concert of the season in the Institute hall, and those present enjoyed a programme of rare excellence. During the many seasons that this splendid organization has delighted the music loving element of Victoria they have established an enviable reputation which advancing years appreciably enhance. Consequently those who attended last evening's event were certain that if persistent practice, combined with exceptional ability, were of any avail they would listen to a musical treat.

The programme was inaugurated by the club's rendition of Mendelssohn's "Hunting Song," which was given in excellent style. This was followed by Massenet's dramatic duet, "The Monk and the Pirate," which was rendered with characteristic vigor and was loudly applauded. The club was assisted throughout the programme by Mrs. W. H. Whittlesley, of the Plymouth Congregational church, Seattle, and Miss Gertrude Loewen, of this city. The former sang beautifully, her voice being one of exquisite tenderness and purity, and her first number, Heusselberg's "If I Were a Rose," commanded a double encore. Mrs. Whittlesley responded with Barletta's "Duet," with rare pathos, while her rendition of Goodbye "Heart of My Heart" evoked another double encore. The talented vocalist from the Sound city unfortunately visits here but seldom, but it is to be hoped that Victorians will have many opportunities of listening to her splendid voice.

The pianoforte solos by Miss Loewen were rendered in a manner that bespoke the true artist. Her execution is splendid and her playing of the various selections evoked considerable enthusiasm and tributes of appreciation from the audience.

Perhaps the numbers rendered by the club which created the most favorable impression, if distinction is possible, were the aforementioned "The Monk and the Pirate," Abt's "Vivace," and Gounod's "Italian Salad," the tenor solo being taken by A. T. Goward in his usual pleasing manner, every note being as clear as a bell. The club also sang "The Lost Chord," in memory of the great composer, whose many compositions, of which this is a masterpiece, were of such price-less value to the world of music—Sir Arthur Sullivan.

The conductor, E. H. Russell, accompanied Mrs. Whittlesley most ably, while apart from his musical accomplishments a need of praise should be tendered him for his indefatigable and highly successful efforts to maintain the superior grade of efficiency established in the past.

Miss Russell also contributed to the successful nature of the concert by excellent accompaniment. As a representative Victoria aggregation of talent the Arion Club has done much in the interests of music in this city, and it is to be hoped that the respective concerts will continue the good impression engendered by that of last evening.

TOWN WIPED OUT.

By a Typhoon—Several Hundred Natives Killed.

(Associated Press)

Manila, Nov. 29.—The transport Sherman, which has arrived here, brings news of a terrible typhoon which swept over the island of Luzon on Nov. 13th, demolishing thousands of dwellings, including the headquarters of Lt. Commander Santos Goceber, the governor of the island. The towns of Ilocos and Zamboanga were obliterated. It is estimated that hundreds of natives were killed. The coconut crops for four years have been ruined and the vegetation of the island has been killed. The storm burst with terrific rapidity about 10 o'clock in the morning. The auxiliary cruiser Yosemite, which was occupying a berth near the collier Justin, dragged her anchors and was driven against 100 yards from the reef. Her bows were crushed in.

Mexicans Threatened to Execute Americans When Indians Intervened.

(Associated Press)

Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 29.—Advices from Tora, a small Mexican habitation on the Sinaloa canal nearly 200 miles south of Guzman, declare there was trouble recently between Mexicans and the Yagui Indians near that place. Five Americans escaped public execution only because the Yaguis went to their assistance. The Americans were to be shot on the day following the death of one Hannon, who was killed by the falling of a derrick, Mexicans claiming that the Americans had perpetrated his death. The Indians threatened bloodshed in case the Mexicans attempted to carry out their threat of shooting the Americans, and the Americans were then released.

Owing to counter attractions the concert held at the Spring Ridge Methodist church last evening was not very well attended. The programme, however, was excellently rendered and those attending spent a very enjoyable evening. J. G. Brown rendered a solo in his usual pleasing style.

The management of the Star shipyard state that quantities of old copper have recently been stolen from the premises, Victoria West. Watch was kept for the thieves, with the result that two boys were captured in the act of taking the copper. They were allowed off with a reprimand, but the proprietors of the yard state that the next caught thief will be prosecuted.

The meeting of the Outlook Club called for last evening in the Metropolitan Methodist church was postponed on account of the session of the inter-denominational Sunday School Association. The club expect to move into the old Methodist church on Pandora street sometime next week. It is estimated that $450 will cover the cost of thoroughly repairing the building.

William Baby, aged 66 years, died at the Home for Aged and Infirm at 6.15 a.m. to-day. He was a native of Horton, Cambridgeshire, England, and accompanied his parents to Victoria when they came here with Dr. Cridge, about 46 years ago. He had been confined to his bed nearly a year. The funeral will take place at St. James from the B. C. Funeral and Furnishing Co.'s parlors.

There were no cases in the police court this morning, and it must be a source of considerable gratification to the supporters of the railway by-law to contemplate the splendid moral influence exerted by it on the populace. Perhaps, however, when the excitement is over and the attention wanes, the revision of feeling will be responsible for a contribution to the municipal strong box to-morrow morning.

Str. Rosalie. Fare 50c to Seattle.

Delinquent taxpayers have been dropping in at the city treasurer's office at intervals during the past few days, the publication of the notification of the sales in the columns, being the responsible factor. At the same time there is no rush, although in all probability when the significance of the announcement is universally comprehended, the visits to the treasurer's office will be more numerous.

H. W. Sheppard, of this city, whose stepson, Pte. Wm. Whitley, died of enteric fever at Johannesburg several months ago, is in receipt of information to the effect that the young man's grave will be marked by a monument. A subscription was taken up among his comrades, and a substantial sum was raised. This is a sufficient commentary on the high esteem in which Pte. Whitley was held, not only by the men of his own company, but by all with whom he came in contact.

A daring attempt was made last night to burglarize the residence of J. L. Crisp on Cadboro Bay road. Entrance was first effected to the dining room through the window, but the door to the hall being locked the would-be thieves were unable to get upstairs. They then went round to the parlor window, and entered the building, but were again non-plussed by finding the hall door locked. They then desisted from their efforts, although an overcoat of Mr. Crisp's, which was in the dining room, and some smaller articles were taken.

Robt. English, a native of Northumberland, Eng., died at the Jubilee hospital last evening, having been a sufferer from consumption. Deceased was an elderly man, and leaves a widow, living in England. His funeral will be conducted by the Masonic order.

The death of Mary Herberta Sullivan occurred this morning at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Sherwood, No. 48 South road. The deceased was 67 years of age and a native of Ontario. The funeral will take place from the residence on Saturday at 2 p.m.

The fire department was last evening called to the corner of Yates and Langley streets, a fire having broken out in the rooms above J. J. Moore's drug store. It was extinguished by the chemical. The cause of the blaze was the upsetting of a lamp by Mrs. Moore. The damage amounted to about $25.

Yesterday while a test was being made at the North Dairy Farm pumping station, one of the joints of the main broke, and the operations were immediately suspended. The necessary repairs were easily made, and as soon as all the pipes are thoroughly tested, the station will be ready for service. The pressure yesterday was 100 pounds, and that of last Saturday 75 pounds. The machinery is satisfactory.

Eugene Brooks, Zionite Evangelist, in this city, and Willie W. Maltby, who are charged with causing the death of the 6-year-old son of the latter, were released on bail about 3.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. No objection was entered by the city solicitor, who will act for the prosecution, and as mentioned yesterday, the bonds were fixed at $2,000 each, John Jardine and Thomas H. Horne being bondsmen. It is said that when Mr. Brooks arranged to have a lawyer to defend him he telegraphed to Chicago for the funds required to meet the fee of his counsel. The reply, while theoretically comforting, was not as practical as was hoped for, it being as follows: "Fee entirely too much. Am praying." The Zionites held their meeting last night as usual.

ANARCHISTS IN LONDON.

Their Daily Haunts and Habits and the Characteristics of Some of Their Leaders.

The headquarters of anarchy in London are the byways around George street, Tottenham Court road, streets where you can obtain a five-course dinner for a shilling (wine included) and as much bread as you please, and where you hear six languages when walking twenty yards.

Many years ago Karl Marx, the philosopher of economic Socialism, started near here in a top garret, while he wrote his monumental book on capital, and ever since fanatical reformers have had a constant kindness for the place.

As you walk down George street, or go on through the maze of back ways to Old Compton street, you may see some of the most famous revolutionists.

An Italian whose name turns faces pale in many cities is a common figure. So far as the Italian Anarchists in London have a leader, Emma Malatesta is the man. A dark-complexioned and miserably-stricken figure, he bears from head to foot the stamp of poverty. His beard, you often see is of many days' growth, his clothes grey and worn, his forehead is furrowed and there is a scowl above his deep-set eyes. Whenever you hear of activity, his name is whispered. At the time of the Paris bomb outrages he was helping the secret printing of Le Pere Peillard in London, and his followers took the papers into France. He does not look as though anarchism had made him very happy.

Sometimes you will see Louise Michel, perhaps on her way to the meat market in Tottenham street, for her supper. Louise Michel may be, and no doubt is, the most violent of demagogues in speech, but I doubt if to-day she could find it in her heart to hurt a fly. This poor, half-crazed, wholly pitiful woman is largely innocent. To hear her speak, to catch the poignant misery of her every tone, is to realize the unhappiness of her life. Her bloodless face, her stooping miserable figure, tell of this saddest of all Anarchists.

There are other few Englishmen among the Anarchists. Sometimes you may see a chubby little man with a scabby nose and watery eyes, sometimes editor of The Commonwealth, who eight years ago received a smart sentence of imprisonment for inciting to the murder of the home secretary, Mr. Justice Hawkins, and Chief Inspector Melville of Scotland Yard. He came out of prison broken in health. When I last heard of him he had sold his last possession to bring out another number of his journal, a journal which nobody buys. He got the idea that some of the Anarchist leaders were really police spies, and was denouncing them accordingly.

This idea is common to all Anarchists. They are always suspecting one another, and often trouble each other in their haste to give information to the police. Some time ago, when they had some sort of an organization in London, when they had a club of their own, the Anarchists, and were constantly meeting to denounce capitalists, the police had their agents in every meeting.

Mr. Melville of Scotland Yard has for many years had them in charge, and knows more about them than they do about themselves. The foreign refugees are left undisturbed, unless they actively plan or incite to murder here. Then the police come down on them at once. The Walsall Anarchists learned this to their cost, when they started bomb-making nine years ago. They were arrested, and three got ten years' penal servitude and one five years'. A Russian who three years ago was urging folk to murder the Czar was also given the chance to cool his ardor in an English prison.

The notorious Johann Most, who in 1881 landed a paper in London rejoicing over the assassination of the Czar, was rewarded by an unappreciative English judge with sixteen months' hard labor. The idea of foreign critics that Anarchists are allowed to do what they please here is quite wrong.

It is not the English police who have their spies in the Anarchist quarters. Several of the most violent French and German speakers receive regular allowances from the authorities of Paris and Berlin.

Not long ago a young assistant in an Anarchist book shop in Goodie street was suspected of being in police pay. His comrades opened his letters, and found one of them to be from the chief of police in Paris, including money and demanding further information.

The Anarchists summoned a meeting, which the traitor was invited to attend. Suspecting nothing, he went. The discussion turned upon spies, and fit puns were suggested for them. None of the party was a spy, but his suggestions as the suspect himself. But while he was talking his comrades jumped at him, gripped his arms, forced a gag in his mouth, and shook the incriminating letter before his eyes. They struck him, the women pulled his hair, the men discussed the best way to make an end of him. But then the courage of the women failed them.

"Don't kill him here," they pleaded. "We do not want to see blood here."

Some one suggested that perhaps he was not the only traitor, and that he might be worth more to them alive than dead. Would he tell of his confederates? They demanded. He nodded assent, and when the gag was taken from his mouth he told a skilful story incriminating many absent men. The Anarchists eyed each other suspiciously. No one dared put knife to this traitor's throat lest police spies should tell on him. Finally they let him go.

The idea that the Anarchists have any elaborate organization, stretching over many lands, keeping its adherents in rigid discipline, is nonsense. There are little bands of discontented men who meet together. In London their favorite place of meeting now is in a little foreign book shop. They denounce the rich and the great. One of them, more in earnest than the others, takes these denunciations to heart, buys a revolver of knife, and seeks a roving victim. That is the way most of the Anarchist outrages outside of Russia happen. The Russian organization was once really formidable.

It is not alone in the Goodie street district that Anarchists are found. The most dangerous men do not go there. Take the Russian long known in England as "Stenkin". For instance. Few in London knew who "Stenkin" was. He would never talk of his past, and to his closest associates in England he was a man of mystery. All they knew was that he was always on the watch for General Mezentzoff, the assassin of St. Petersburg. Kazefsky knew that the Russian police would repay him for this. They did. He went one day from his home at Bedford Park, and was soon after found crushed to death by a train at a level crossing.

The Anarchists, as a whole, are desperately poor. How poor none but those near them can appreciate. The starvation they denounce is what they themselves often enough feel. Lately their poverty has increased. Their favorite and most violent organ, Le Pere Peillard, had to stop for want of buyers. They know that their one hope is to force themselves on the attention of the world by a policy of outrage. It is easy enough to egg on weak-headed fools to do the murdering, while the others sit behind and plot and plan for the great changes that are to come. But even the cleverest of these rascals fanatics are persons of weak mind.

"I have a dozen down quilts packed away," said a wealthy woman the other day, "and I am getting a supply of wool quilts to take their place. The down is altogether too warm in a well-heated house, and I can't use them."

The wool quilt has all the advantages of the down, with the additional one, if one looks upon it from that standpoint, that they are a little cheaper. They are lined with a fine quality of Shetland wool, are soft and fleecy, covered with the prettiest of silks and satins, and they make an ideal bed covering.
All the flowers are to be found in the designs. It is these floral designs that are bought to match pretty chintz wall-papers, or the quilts in only one color are purchased—quite for a blue room, pink for a pink room; etc. The popular line of wool quilts with the flowered silk covers cost $15, and the prices range upward to $24, or even more, for some of the finer ones.

The finest covers are, as a rule, to be found on the down quilts. A blue satin cover, for instance, has the whole centre covered with a handsome square of white lace and a border of the lace around the edge. A quilt like this costs $40.

Blankets can be found now that are nearly as light and soft as the down on wool quilts. The best of these are the French blankets, thick and soft, which have the warmth of two ordinary blankets. They do not come in pairs, and each blanket is bound at both ends with a wide satin binding. These sell for from $10 to $18 apiece.

A new lot of blankets just opened for the fall are the French camping blankets. These come in dark colors, in browns and mixed blues, are sold singly for $10, and are too warm for anything but the hunting camp. The Austrian blankets, which sell for $10 and $11, come with all-over designs in figures in pretty delicate colors, and make de-

THE KNOLL DOUBLE-ACTION WASHER

Competed with over 800 machines from all over the world at Chicago in 1893, and was successful in taking the premiums and gold medal. The only perfect machine of its kind; entirely different in principle from any other; washes clothes perfectly clean and does the work in one-third the time it can be done in any other way. OVER 40,000 IN USE IN CANADA. The clothes keep revolving and the action being a squeeze instead of a rub, the suds are forced through the fibre of the cloth, thus removing all the soil or dirt perfectly, and can be adjusted to wash from one small article up to fourteen shirts in quantity at one time, doing that number of pieces in twelve minutes. In connection with this washer we also have the most up-to-date wringer ever shown in this Province. Call and inspect testimonials on file.

Provincial News

NANAIMO.
Thirty-two miners, quarantined in a boarding house at Extension, broke out yesterday afternoon. Dr. Fagan, accompanied by provincial constables, proceeded at once to the scene to restore order, and have the men put back in quarantine.

VANCOUVER.
The case of Walker v. The Union Colliery Co., and Grant v. the same company, which arose out of the Trent river bridge disaster, were settled yesterday before Mr. Justice Irving and a special jury, the jury, on both cases, returning a verdict for the plaintiffs. Walker was the engineer who was killed at the time of the accident, and Grant was the fireman. The damages were $4,500 and $9,500, respectively.

NELSON.
Arthur Pitchford, driver of the fire department, was painfully hurt on Saturday morning. He was driving the fire team for practice, having taken out the hose and ladder wagon for that purpose. In turning from Victoria street onto Stanley the wheels struck the street car tracks overturning the wagon. Pitchford was strapped to the seat, and narrowly escaped serious injury. As it was both of his ankles were badly sprained, and he will be unable to perform his duties for some time.

ROSSLAND.
Mr. Justice Walker, in the Supreme court awarded to James Langley $10,000 damages against M. O'Connor, of Grand Forks. The action arose out of the assaulting of the plaintiff by the defendant at Sheep Creek in September, 1895. Langley was formerly a superintendent on the Northern Pacific and Union Pacific railways. When Patrick Clark first came to this camp he recommended Langley to try his luck here, and Langley resigned his position and came. Shortly after his arrival he met O'Connor, who had properties to sell. In company with a couple of other men he went out, intending to look at them, and if they were as represented, to buy them. About 18 miles from Rossland the party stopped for the night at a cabin. During the evening O'Connor, who had been drinking heavily, assaulted Langley with an axe, crushing in the skull and most horribly mutilating him. Langley was brought back to Rossland, and for three months was under the care of Dr. Howes at his private hospital. At the end of that time he was taken by his friends to the Medical Lake in same asylum, and after 18 months there was discharged, penniless and destitute, and in such a condition physically that he can never hope for recovery. By means of various operations, much has been done for his relief, but the pressure of the skull on the brain cannot be removed, as the poor fellow cannot stand the influence of an anæsthetic. O'Connor was tried for attempted murder, and was found guilty; but the jury considered that he was not responsible for what he had done, and he was confined in the insane asylum for a while, but was released at the end of six months, and has since been in trouble for shooting his mother and father in Grand Forks. He is now out on suspended sentence.

We make way for the man who boldly pushes past us—Dove.

THE RETAIL MARKETS.

Flour—Weakening and a Second Drop in Prices Predicted—Christmas Stocks.

Millmen all over the Western country are notifying dealers of the weakness tendency of the flour market, forecasting another possible cut in prices. It will be remembered that a reduction was made in quotations only recently, and this, too, in the face of the wheat market stiffening at the time. In consideration of these conditions it will be seen that the unexpected has happened, and that, despite all the prophecies to the contrary, flour will be as cheap, if not cheaper, this winter than it was a year ago. The produce market this week is well supplied. Hay has been coming in more freely from the Fraser than at any other time this season, but prices so far have remained firm. Grocers and all retail dealers have commenced their Christmas preparations, and during the past week many large orders have been filled East, with the result that in a few weeks frozen poultry, Eastern fruit, etc., may be looked for to arrive. WEEKLY WEATHER SYNOPSIS.

Victoria Meteorological Office, 21st to 27th November, 1900.

From the commencement of this week there were indications of a change to mild and rainy weather, which usually prevails throughout the Pacific slope at this season of the year.

For the first few days the barometer remained abnormally high and the temperature much below zero east of the Rockies and in Cariboo, while on the Coast the barometer was falling in advance of an extensive ocean storm area. This disturbance gradually spread towards Vancouver Island, and caused, first, a light snowfall here and a much heavier one on the Lower Mainland, which eventually turned to a general rainfall west of the Cascades. By the morning of the 25th the influence of this extensive barometric depression had spread across the Rockies to the Territories, where the temperature rapidly rose above zero, and in Alberta it rose high enough to cause a pronounced thaw. From this date to the close of the week the weather remained fair and comparatively mild from the Cascades eastward to the Great Lakes. Owing to the further development of this storm area off Vancouver Island, cautionary storm signals for a moderate east to south gale were displayed both here and at Vancouver. By night a moderate south gale was reported along the Washington and Oregon coasts, though over the Straits and Gulf only strong winds occurred. By Sunday, 26th, the centre of this storm had crossed the province to Alberta, where it caused high winds and temperatures above 40. The remainder of the week was fair throughout the North Pacific slope, due to the spreading eastward of an important high barometer area.

At Victoria only 14 hours and 30 min.

THE SWORD IS MIGHTIER THAN THE PEN.

Priceless literary treasures were tumbled into lotus ponds, or were used as kindling by the British marines. The rare and unique Encyclopaedia of Young Lu, and the famed essays of Han Lin have vanished in the flames, lit by the hands of the conquerors, and are naught but ashes—Oriental Press.

THE BUGLES OF BRITAIN HAVE SOUNDED—

In the streets of the Chinese city, in the heart of pagan Cathay:

Where the pulse of an Empire beats 'gainst the close-drawn ribs of steel,

That the gods of the sword-won nations have forged for their children's weal.

And the song of the British bugles, where the British banners are borne,

Is the song of a race triumphant, in the life of a nation's morn;

For the years will roll to the century's close, and the pen will pass on;

Thill time fades into a hundred such, ere they still that battle song.

To its stirring strains the echoes waken

When the Tartar hordes withdrew From the gates of their ancient city,

And the fighting men swept through;

And borne on the wings of the Eastern wind to the fog-lit peoples there,

It cheered the hearts that had lost all hope in the hours of dark despair.

But we must shudder for what is done by the blood-red hand of war,

And shudder the curse of embattled hosts upon our well-loved shore—

The shore of the Isles that are ever washed by the waves that swing our dead,

Where they tangled lie in the bottom grass, on the sand or the rocky head.

For that foe would not spare the priceless works—the works of brush and pen—

That were left as a mark of a higher life by a nobler walk of men,

Who gave their lives for the cause they held, the cause of a God-sent word

That bade the nations rise in light when His still small voice was heard.

That voice which called through the ages dark, when the skin-and Celts ran o'er

The land of the West, from the Turkish seas to the Baltic's rugged shore,

That voice which called through the night-black years, when, grovelling in their caves,

The fathers of our mighty race were naught but passion's slaves.

And when we must stoop to that judgment—to that judgment of the just—

When the walls of our house are falling, when its pillars crumble to dust,

Well, think of the crimes that were done in the halls of a dæmon state,

Of the books that were burned by our men in the heat of battle's hate.

For the arms of our Christian war-men grown strong in the Christian faith,

In the land of the dream-fed peoples have debased their creed of right;

And the wall of despair that is borne o'er the foam of wintry seas

Is the cry of a nation in the dust, sword-bitten to its knees.

Yes, the blood of the vandal Celt still works in our veins the same,

And our deeds in the Chinese city are a blot on the British name;

And the battle song of triumph that our Sprang from the lips of the warrior men

In the year that our race was born.

and Many People Have Gone to Hospital.

(Associated Press.)
London, Nov. 29.—The beer poisoning disease has spread to Leeds and Birmingham, and an analysis of the beer in the public houses has been ordered. A feeling of panic prevails among the peo-

PERILOUS VOYAGE.
(Associated Press.)
Halifax, N. S., Nov. 29.—The Elder Demeter mail steamer Lake Megantic reached here yesterday afternoon after a tempestuous passage. Twelve hours after leaving Queenstown she encountered a severe storm, and later the clutch of the rudder broke, rendering the steamer helpless, delaying her two days.
The third day the rudder broke, and the steamer lay to be towed against the storm in order to repair the break. At this time the steamer was 130 miles from Cape Race, Newfoundland, after repairs the steamer made slow progress, making only forty miles some days.

THE PASSING THROG.

Arrivals of the Day at City Hotels—Gossip of the Couriers.

Arthur Langley, who returned this morning from San Francisco, had an experience in coming North which he is not likely to soon forget. He travelled overland, and when nearing Dunsmuir, on the Southern Pacific, the train in which he was in crashed into another going in the opposite direction. Three engines were wrecked in the collision, there being two on one train, and several cars were badly smashed, but fortunately only two of the many passengers were injured, although all, including Mr. Langley, were thrown violently about in the coaches. The two injured were not seriously hurt. Considering the manner in which the cars suffered, Mr. Langley thinks that the escape of so many traveling on the train was miraculous.

Coughs Kill

We know of nothing better than coughing to tear the lining of your throat and lungs. It is better than wet feet to cause bronchitis and pneumonia. Only keep it up and you will succeed in reducing your weight, losing your appetite, bringing on a slow fever, and making everything exactly right for the germs of consumption.

Cherry
Pectoral
kills coughs of every kind. A 25c. bottle is just right for an ordinary cough; for the harsher coughs of bronchitis you will need 50c. bottle; and for the coughs of consumption the one dollar size is most economical.

"My cough reduced me to a mere skeleton. I tried many remedies, but they all failed. After using the Cherry Pectoral I immediately began to improve, and three bottles restored me to health. I believe I owe my life to it."

cavalcade had been carried on on the published list of last year. The supporters of the by-law discovered the difference early in the day, and thus stole a march on their opponents until the latter discovered the fact and rectified their error.

The indications are that the by-law will have a substantial majority. Up to 2:30

Steamer Constance, which has been engaged for light-house and harbor service, is being anxiously expected to arrive with coal from Nanaimo. Her first trip in Dominion employ will be that of towing the light-house scow to Cowichan —where a light is to be installed—on Walker rock, similar to that in use on Burdette ledge, prior to the new electric light being there established. Afterwards she will proceed to Ballina Island and with the fixtures for the new white light to be there erected, the establishment of which was delayed through the Quadra going North on fishery business.

The vessels of the Victoria Sealers' Association, which this year will be sent to the Japan coast, are the Carlotta G.
Cox, Vera, Borealis, Mary Taylor, Aurora, Director, Dora Seward, City of San Diego, Oscar and Hattie. Each of these will carry a full complement of white men. They will probably get away from their respective cruises about the beginning of the next year, while those which will be leaving on southern expeditions, and the fleet will number all those not destined for across the Pacific, will be sailing a few weeks earlier.

A dispatch from South Bend says:
"The four-masted British ship Polaris went ashore at 1 a.m., Monday on North Spit, one and a half miles southwest of the Willapa Bay light. The tug Astoria of this place is now trying to pull her off, but the task seems hopeless.
The Polaris came in last night from South Russia to Astoria for a load of wheat. She is of 2,200 tons register.
Seventeen of her crew was rescued by the North Cove life crew, but thirteen are still on board. The boat is in the sands, one mile from shore. Both her anchors are gone."

Capt. Joyce, who brought the halibut steamer New England around the Horn, and who has guided her wheel ever since she has been operated on the Pacific, has resigned his position, and has been succeeded in command by Captain Gott.
Every man aboard the New England, and all the Vancouver officers much regret the Captain's retirement from the service, and in token of their esteem, they presented him with a handsome pair of binocular glasses, a gold chain and other souvenirs of the service.

The bark R. P. Rithet had a lively time of it on her last trip to San Francisco from Honolulu. First of all, she struck a dead calm and nearly went ashore before getting away from the island of Oahu. Then she was caught in a heavy southeaster and lost several sails. Then she was almost on top of the North Parallels before the captain got his position, and finally she nearly ran down the lights when making port.

The Schome is again to be placed in service on the Victoria and Puget Sound route in place of the Victoria, which has been withdrawn from the run. She will arrive here on her first trip on Monday, leaving Seattle daily except Sunday at 8 a.m., and Victoria daily at 8 p.m., except Saturday.

Bark Arnold, which arrived at Falmouth on the 25th inst., with British Columbia cargo, had her flag at half-mast in respect to Capt. Pechen, who died on the voyage.

Steamer City of Puebla is due from San Francisco to-morrow morning, and Umatilla, is due to sail outward bound in the evening.

T. M. survey ship Egria has vacated the dock.

British ship Italia resumed her voyage from Montevideo on November 7th. The vessel had put into port for repairs, her fore and top masts having been carried away on August 18th.

Another consignment of salted salmon for transshipment to the Orient was brought in from the Fraser by the Yose-mite last evening.

German ship Pollas has completed her lumber cargo at the Hastings mill. She has aboard 1,100,000 feet.

Steamer Charnier connected with the Eastern train to-day, and left Vancouver at 1:50 o'clock.

INTERESTING SESSION.

Interdenominational Sunday School Association Last Evening Elected District Officers.

The second meeting of the provincial branch of the Interdenominational Sunday School Association was held last evening in the schoolroom of the Metropolitan Methodist church. A large number of people were present and business of great importance was dealt with.

The devotional services, which occupied about half an hour, were conducted by A. Huggert, after which E. A. Lewis took the chair and presided over the meeting for the rest of the evening.

Rev. Dr. Wilson read a paper on "How to Foster the Missionary Spirit." In concluding his remarks, he said that it was of great importance to make Sunday school pupils, when they were contributing towards a missionary fund, acquainted with the object for which their contributions would be used.

After Mr. McNeil had completed the reading of his paper a discussion followed in which the question of organizing classes for the training of Sunday school teachers came up. Further discussion of the matter was laid over until this evening.

The convention was then favored with a vocal drill by Miss Armon and Mrs.
Shaw.

L. Tall read a paper on "How to Conduct a Successful Bible Class." He laid stress on the fact that the Bible class was one of the most important classes of the Sunday school, and needed the very best of teachers—men and women who would give time to the preparation of the lesson and take a personal interest in the class.

The following officers were then elected for the Victoria branch of the Interdenominational Sunday School Association: President, A. R. McNeil; 1st vice-president, Mrs. Loe; 2nd vice-president, A. Huggert; 3rd vice-president, Mrs.
Gordon Grant; 4th vice-president, Mrs.
Gregson; 5th vice-president, J. Bryden; secretary, J. M. Campbell; assistant secretary, Miss Seaworth; treasurer, W.
H. Pone; executive committee, R. B.
McMicking, E. A. Lewis, C. L. Brown.
This branch of the association will take in Victoria, Cedar Hill, Metehoon, Sanich, Esquimaux and the Lake district. Rev. R. H. Hughes concluded the meeting with a benediction.

The final meeting will be held this evening in the churchroom of the Metropolitan Methodist church. The opening exercises will be conducted by R. B. Mc-Micking and President N. Shakespeare will occupy the chair.

Rev. Mr. Merritt, state organizer for Washington, will be in attendance, and answer any question put in the question box. Solos will be rendered by J.
Bryden and Miss Seaworth. The Rev.
E. S. Rowe will deliver a speech, and the report of the resolution committee will be received.

Kilmarnock Scotch Whisky.....

This very fine quality of Scotch Whisky is fast growing in favor in British Columbia. It has for many years been the leading whisky all over Europe, and is to be obtained in all the leading hotels, clubs and refreshment places in London and other large cities of Great Britain. It is termed the "Johnnie Walker", which means Walker's famous "Kilmarnock".

The people of British Columbia demand a good Scotch Whisky, which we take pleasure in presenting, and if you will try the "Kilmarnock", you will accept no other. The proprietors of this whisky, Messrs. John Walker & Sons, of Kilmarnock, do not spend money in fancy advertising matter, and attractive labels, bottles, etc., preferring to put the value into the whisky, thus giving the consumer the benefit.

The "Kilmarnock" is always the same in quality.
It is to be found in all the clubs, hotels and refreshment places in British Columbia. Take no substitute. If your grocer does not keep it, come to us, and we will take pleasure in directing you to places where it can be obtained, if desired, in small quantities. We have it in case and in wood.
